

Presenting . . .

Your 2012 Leelanau Pages

The Leelanau Pages provides information to keep you acquainted with Leelanau County. It's really three books at once:

- The Community Directory, with the outside of pages printed red, includes 48 pages of information about the Leelanau County. Here you'll learn the names of your elected officials, where to volunteer for non-profit groups, how to contact local school districts and more updated local information. Many maps are also provided.

- The Phone Book, or white pages, includes home listings and, when requested, the cell phone numbers of residents.

- The Business Directory, or yellow pages, contains the most complete listing of businesses in Leelanau County. Please consider patronizing your businesses; their health is extremely important for the future of Leelanau County.

ABOUT THE COVER

North Manitou Island is framed in this shot taken from Inspiration Point overlooking big Glen Lake and Lake Michigan. The frame was captured as a storm moved across the Big Lake. While many Leelanau County residents and visitors have taken photos from the same perch, few have the vision and timing to so exquisitely join land and water. Our kudos to outdoor photographer Ken Scott.
